About West Bridgewater

West Bridgewater, Massachusetts is located in Plymouth County and is approximately 25 miles south of Boston. First settled in 1651 as part of Olde Bridgewater, West Bridgewater was incorporated as its own community in 1822. West Bridgewater’s location along Route 24 has resulted in an increase in the amount of commercial and industrial activity there in recent years. This activity is balanced by a number of working farms throughout the community, which harkens back to its roots as an agricultural community and contributes to the scenic character of the town. In addition to Route 24, West Bridgewater is also accessible via the well-traveled Routes 28 and 106, which run north-south and east-west, respectively, through town. MBTA Commuter Rail Stations are located in both nearby Bridgewater and Brockton.

Step-by-Step Guide to Starting a Business

Before this guide goes into the specifics of West Bridgewater, here is a very basic summary of the steps any potential business owner must understand everywhere.

Step 1:

Plan Ahead. Are you on the right track to starting your business? Are you healthy enough to put in long hours or will the addition of too much stress put you over the edge? Do you have good credit/ are you financially stable enough to put your money into a new business? Are you able to take responsibility for your own actions? Are you informed on business techniques/ do you have business owning skills? If you answered no to any of these questions, you may want to rethink opening your business at this point in time. Wait a little longer so you can answer “yes” to all of these questions. Your business will be more successful in the end because of it.

Step 2:

Create a Business Plan. Every successful business needs a plan. Write out your businesses future by creating ideas of how to grow revenues and avoid going out of business if something were to happen. Create goals for your business and find a way to make your products unique from competitors in the same market. Create a sales strategy and decide on a management and organization that will fit your business. Creating a business plan will help you to identify problems that you may stumble upon in your business before you actually run into them.

Step 3:

Ask for Outside Help. Take some extra business courses. Ask fellow business owners what they have encountered that made owning a business difficult. Get counseling or take a training class. Any of these sources of outside help can increase your success.
Step 4:

Choose a Name. Create a name for your business. Make sure you’re not using a name that another business already has. Create something unique that draws people’s attention and also relates to what you are selling. A good name can make all the difference.

Step 5:

Choose a Location. Choose a location that is right for your business. Make sure there are people in the area you choose that are in need of what you are selling. Even within a certain town, one side of town may be more appropriate for your business than the other side due to land formations or water ways. It is also necessary to verify the zoning for the specific location to make sure it is accepted by the town for you to start your business there.

Step 6:

Secure Financing. Make sure you have the finances to fund starting your own business. Use money you have saved, money given to you from family, or money to fund your business through loans to begin your business. Any of these options are perfectly fine as long as you know you have enough funding to open your business and keep it running before you begin making a solid income from it.

Step 7:

Choose a Business Structure. Each type of business structure has different legal and tax implications. It is necessary to choose the one that fits your particular business. The different types of business structures are sole proprietorship, limited liability, cooperative, partnership or corporation. All of these types are different from each other and should be researched before deciding on which type.

Step 8:

File for a Business Certificate. Make sure you file for a business certificate through the town you are opening a business in. See more information on pages 16-17.
Step 9:

Obtain a Federal Employer Tax ID Number. Obtain a free “Employer Identification Number” from the IRS. This is needed if you have employees, if you operate a business as a cooperation or partnership, or if you file tax returns for Employment, Excise, Alcohol, Tobacco, or Fire Arms. You can obtain an “Employer Tax ID Number” for free at www.irs.gov.

Step 10:

Register with the State. Make sure to register with the state you are opening a business in if you are a cooperation, nonprofit organization, limited-liability company or partnership. For the state of Massachusetts, more information about this can be found at www.mass.gov.

Step 11:

Know the Tax Regulations. Taxes are a vital part of owning a business. Make sure you are familiar with the tax rules in the state you are opening a business in. For the state of Massachusetts, more information about this can be found at www.mass.gov.

Step 12:

Acquire Licenses and Permits. Business owners must be sure to file for and obtain all the necessary licenses and permits for your particular business. Sometimes the required licenses and permits change so it is necessary to keep up to date with them.

Step 13:

Understand Employer Responsibilities. It is necessary to realize that you are responsible for every aspect of your business. You must understand how to manage your employees and meet the regulations of the state as well. For the state of Massachusetts, more information about this can be found at www.mass.gov.
Business Certificate

What is a Business Certificate?

A business certificate is the public record of the name and address of the owner(s) of a business, and is commonly referred to by the name “D.B.A” (“Doing Business As”) or Sole Proprietorship. Its purpose is primarily for consumer protection and public information. Lenders will typically request a copy of your business certificate.

Who must file a Business Certificate?

Any person conducting business in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts under any title other than the real name of the person conducting the business, whether individually or as a partnership, must file a Business Certificate in the Town Clerk’s office of every town or city that the business person or partnership is located.

Businesses who file with the Secretary of State’s office do not need to file with the town. Certain other associations and partnerships may also be exempt. To find these other exemptions, view Massachusetts General Laws Chapter 110, section 5.

How do I file or renew a Business Certificate?

Business Certificates can be obtained at the West Bridgewater Town Clerk’s office. The fee for a Business Certificate is $40.00. Business Certificates must be renewed every four years for $40.00.

What do I do if I discontinue or withdraw from the business or move to another location?

If you are no longer in business or you move out of town, you should file a withdrawal from business form obtained from the West Bridgewater Town Clerk’s Office. This should be done as soon as possible to avoid additional personal property taxes on your business because these personal property taxes cannot be adjusted until West Bridgewater’s Assessors receive your withdrawal form. The withdrawal is effective the date you file the form, not the date you ended your business. You should file the withdrawal form before the Business Certificate’s date of expiration. The fee for withdrawing from a business is $10.00.

What is the penalty for failing to file a Business Certificate?

The requirement to file a Business Certificate is a State Law. Failure to do so is punishable by a fine of up to $300.00 per month of violation.

Is there anything I am required to do prior to filing a Business Certificate?

Yes, in order to file for a Business Certificate, you must also fill out a “New Business Owner’s Business Certificate Sign-Off Sheet” Form. This form involves obtaining signatures from multiple departments to confirm that you visited that office and they informed you on any permits or licenses you may need for your business. You can find this form at:

Where can I find a Business Certificate for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts?

You can find a Business Certificate for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts in the West Bridgewater Town Clerk’s Office or you can find a copy on the following page that you can remove from this guide and use to fill in and bring to the Town Clerk’s office.
